

NEWS IN PETERSBURG

THE MEMORIAL CELEBRATION OF THE ELKS ON SUNDAY.

DR. CALISCH AND DR. BATTLE.

An Incident That Was Regretted—The Dead of the Year—The Junior Order of American Mechanics—Other Notes.

PETERSBURG, VA., December 4.—(Special.)—Petersburg Lodge, No. 27, B. P. O. E., held their annual memorial services Sunday afternoon at the Academy of Music, with a very interesting programme of ceremonies. The large building was crowded from stage to annex, with as brilliant an audience as ever assembled within its walls.

Exalted-Ruler R. L. Bowman presided and conducted the exercises, assisted by several of the officers of the lodge.

The musical numbers were a trio, sung by the "P. T. P. trio," three cultured young men of Petersburg, entitled, "Shall We Meet Beyond the River," and most admirably rendered, and several beautiful solos sung by Miss Gay Ragland and Miss Daisy Hutzler, of Richmond. But for the solemnity of the occasion, and the fact that the audience had been requested not to manifest their approval of any number on the programme, these young ladies would have been rewarded by rapturous applause. Mr. E. A. Morrison, of this city, also sang a solo in splendid style.

The formal eulogy on the occasion was delivered by Rev. E. N. Calisch, of Richmond. His address was finished and scholarly, and spoken with the grace of true oratory.

HIS ADDRESS.

Dr. Calisch eulogized the order; spoke of the nobility of human nature, especially on the side of sentiment; declared that in this age, which attaches so much value to mere material existence, it is of great importance to give due recognition to the immortal and eternal soul. He paid a very beautiful tribute to human affection, and found in it an evidence of the life beyond, where these nobler emotions will reign forever. Thus he passed easily and naturally to the discussion of the "Dead of the Year." The "Immortality of the Soul." Upon this great subject the distinguished rabbi spoke very eloquently, but in the course of his remarks declared that beyond the strong presumption of the soul's immortality, which he had made as from the inspiration of the human soul the indestructibility of matter and the superiority of the soul to matter there was no assurance of a future state of existence. Dr. Calisch closed with a very beautiful story from the Talmud, illustrating the thought that our loved ones belonged to God, and should be willingly returned to Him, when, in His wisdom, He called for them.

Rev. H. W. Battle, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, followed Dr. Calisch in an address, and spoke from the inspiration of the occasion. He began by paying a superb compliment to the genius of Dr. Calisch, who, he declared, reflected the glory of a nation, which, despite persecution, had given to the world its best possession of poetry, legislation, philosophy, and religion. He found in the name "Elks" a suggestive of the Americanism, gentleness, and usefulness. This brought the speaker to the theme discussed by Dr. Calisch, Dr. Battle moved along the line of the distinguished rabbi's thought, till he reached the conclusion of the rabbi's declaration as to the future existence. "With dignity and power," he exclaimed, "let the breaking human heart cry, 'If Thou hadst been here my brother had not died.' Let the downy cheeks of children and majesty as the centuries roll, comes the sublime and divine reply, 'Thy brother shall live again! I am the resurrection and the life!'" At this moment Dr. Battle, who so strongly characterized his seat at the front and leave the stage.

The incident was very noticeable and has been very much regretted. It was afterwards understood that Dr. Battle had taken offense at the words of Dr. Battle, who so strongly characterized his Christian convictions, and had shown his protest by retiring from the stage. The matter has been widely discussed to-day, and regret is generally expressed over the incident.

VERY MANY CASES.

Justice John Gives Away a Great Deal of Justice.

Justice John had one of the greatest days yesterday he has had for a long time. Legal offenders were on every hand, and for several hours his Honor was absorbed in dispensing justice.

Dora King, a colored girl, went into the dress-stealing business. She was found guilty of the charge of stealing a black China silk skirt and a black crepe silk skirt, all the value of $13, the property of Mrs. J. A. Duke. Dora was sent to jail for ten days.

George Smith alias Robert White was up for being a suspicious individual. His morning was continued until the morning.

John Werner, a man who is believed to have entered a room in an obscure locality and taken all the clothes of a white man who was sleeping there. The sleeper was John Werner, a colored man, who had been stripped of everything. Officer Werner found the clothes at a pawnshop and recovered them. Then he went out in search of the fellow who put them there. It was Smith who he eventually found.

THE THREE COUNCILS OF THE JUNIOR ORDER of United American Mechanics met in their hall last night in large numbers and marched in a body to the West-Street Methodist church for their annual Thanksgiving service. The church was crowded. The special sermon was delivered by Rev. L. W. Gayer, the pastor and a member of the order. The sermon was very interesting, based on the subject, "What God Wants."

A perfect woman—perfect in form and in feature is a great rarity. Every woman realizes this as she stands before some beautiful piece of Greek sculpture. Social customs, tight lacing, improper food, inadequate clothing, and a score of other things have stolen the shape and suppleness of woman's form and robbed her cheeks of their roses and their roundness. For these things nature avenges herself.

Weakening drains establish themselves, tearing down the tissues and destroying the graceful lines and curves of the figure. Pains and aches help to hasten the process. Displacements and bearing-down sensations weaken the entire system. Nervousness makes life almost unendurable. Mothers suffering in this manner impart their weakness to their children, and thus is kept up the endless chain of imperfect reproduction. A new order of things is being established. However, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the great non-alcoholic cure for women's diseases and weaknesses, is making hundreds of girls and women healthy. And it is also making the rising generation stronger and more perfect physically. Like produces like. A healthy mother has healthy children. "Favorite Prescription" makes healthy mothers.

ELKS' LODGE OF SORROW.

Interesting and Impressive Services Held at the Academy on Sunday.

The annual Lodge of Sorrow was conducted last Sunday afternoon by the Richmond Lodge, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, at the Academy of Music.

The house was filled in every part, and the services were devotional and very interesting. The programme was made up of most attractive features, and without exception, it was splendidly carried out.

The orator of the occasion was Rev. Dr. M. E. Broadbush, of Bristol Lodge, now of Isle of Wight. His text was, "Go thou and do likewise."

Dr. Broadbush made reference to the fact that some of the finest truths were brought out by the questions of the law, and addressed to our Master. On one occasion casual a certain lawyer asked what was the great commandment. The Lord gives it, and answers: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." A second time a lawyer asked what he must do to inherit eternal life, and the Saviour asked, "How readest thou the law?" The lawyer giving the command, as above stated, upon which the Master says, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor." But he, willing to justify himself, asked, "Who is my neighbor?" And our Saviour gave the beautiful parable of the Good Samaritan.

Dr. Broadbush, continuing, said that life at best is full of trials, and that the object of the law is to help the sick and afflicted, and to sympathize with those in trouble, and to raise the fallen. He spoke of the law as being wholesome, big-hearted fellows, to whom he would sooner go to ask a favor than to any other organization, and that their work was done unostentatiously.

Mr. Frank P. Burke delivered the eulogy on the order, and spoke of the musical features of the programme were very commendably given.

Cardozo Case on Trial—Becker Case May Be Continued—Owens Halted.

The case against A. W. Cardozo, who stands charged in the United States District Court with robbing the mails, was begun yesterday, Judge Edmund Waddill on the bench.

Several witnesses for the government were examined, but owing to the objection of the assistant postmaster of Danville—a material witness in the case—the further hearing was postponed. The absence of the assistant postmaster was unexplained, and counsel for the defense refused to go on with the trial.

BAD ACCIDENT TO A TRAMP.

Joseph N. Houston, a tramp from Kansas City, met with a bad accident at Waverly this morning about 4 o'clock. He was stealing a ride on a freight train when he fell and was run over. He was brought to the Home for the Sick in the city, where he was operated upon by Dr. J. M. Burke, assisted by Dr. John Mann.

His right foot and right hand were so badly mangled that both had to be amputated.

The District Attorney will today make application for the continuance of the Moritz Becker case until the next term of court. Counsel for the defense will file a demurrer and ask that the case be dismissed on the ground that the evidence, as shown by the government, is entirely insufficient.

Howland S. Owens alias Captain Ward, was admitted to bail in the sum of $100. His case will probably be called today. Judge Waddill is expected to dispose of all the business of the term by to-morrow night.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CHARTER.

Four That Are Being Considered by the Special Committee.

The Committee on Charter Changes met in the City Hall last night. Several papers were referred to the City Attorney, with instructions to prepare amendments to the charter. The principal amendments suggested are:

Granting the city power to construct streets, and to acquire by condemnation street railways.

Granting the city power to construct sewers, culverts, and drains, and to acquire by condemnation street railways.

Granting the city power to provide that in any action against the city for damages, any person in any way responsible for the catastrophe which leads to the suit may be joined with the city as defendant to such suit.
